Dear Students,

I think it is about time that I let you know about how I see my own future shaping up. As many of you will know, I have decided to remain at UNVA-Prague.

Perhaps this is a good time to give you some heads-up about my decision to stay.

First and foremost, I really needed to feel confident about the future of UNVA in Prague, and I wanted to know where I would fit into the future plans for the university. Recently, I met face-to-face with the Chancellor of the University and he gave me strong assurances about the strategic vision for UNVA-Prague. I am delighted to tell you that there will be substantial investment in the Prague campus. I am also pleased by the commitments that have been made to me on a professional level.

I now feel that the people and processes in place at the main campus in Virginia will set UNVA in good standing for the future. I have a high level of confidence in the UNVA administrators in charge of the SACS accreditation process and I have no doubt that we will see a successful outcome in our dealings with SACS before the end of 2009.

On a personal level, I want to see the happy, student-centered, supportive community continue at UNVA.

Good wishes,
Martin

Perry,

I well had my first shock of the day in reading your email - particularly the item regarding the inability to transfer of credits from UNVA after it lost its accreditation. If you don't mind, I'll give you a call today to review the content of your email.

I appreciate your response and look forward to meeting and working with Tiffin's staff as our mutual students come on board.

Mitchell,

Please read Perry's email below. Needless to say, I am absolutely shocked that at this stage of the transition this news is coming to light. It was my understanding (as well as Martin's and Gordon's) from you that Tiffin had agreed to accept for transfer UNVA credits acquired during the 18 months after the loss of UNVA's accreditation (i.e. through Fall 2009). And in addition, that they had approved the course by course transition plan we laid out for the MBA and BBA programs. I'm sure you realize that without this ability, that our project

Hi Michelle,

You can breath again. :-)

The registrar agreed to allow the students who have taken classes since UNVA lost its accreditation to take TU created proficiency tests for those classes. We will need a list of the courses for which we will need to create tests.

Actually, I don't know if this would work but I am going to be in Poland and Romania in July. Maybe I could make a trip to Prague to oversee the administration of the test to keep our accrediting types happy. I don't know if students are available to take the tests then (I'm guessing not?).

I can Skype anytime if it is easier than exchanging mails.

Perry,

Am breathing in shallow gasps still. Appreciate your help.

Logistics complications:

There would be 110 classes with an average of 18 students per class or 1,980 tests to be administered and marked.

How do you envision proceeding? The time to prepare the initial material for your registrar, schedule and administer the exams, mark them and document everything will be an enormously time consuming endeavor. Not to mention the cost associated with this undertaking as we would have to bear the total unplanned cost out of an operational start-up budget.

The testing would have to be done during the school term as the majority of our potential students will go home for the summer.

I'll give you a call about 9:00 your time to further talk about proceeding. While I understand the concern of your registrar and the need to ensure compliance with the accrediting agency, I'd like to continue to discuss options or revised options.

Regards,

Michelle

Hi Perry, just back from my reunion, and here in Wilmington with access to email again. Michelle sent me an email with some concerns about transfer credits. I think she may have already spoken to you again about that, so maybe by now all is solved. There is only one very serious problem, which is that of transferring credits earned after UNYA lost accreditation. We spoke about this in Bucharest, and you'd told me that it shouldn't be a problem to make an exception for that. If Tiffin can't accept those credits, our whole business plan will not work. Maybe we can speak by phone today. I'll be in and out. My number here is 302-652-5231 or I can try you. Let me know what's best.

Hi Michelle,
I exchanged a few emails with Perry, and he seems confident that there will be a way to transfer the credits from this year. He needs to discuss that with the registrar who is on holiday until next week. I've told him that we would prefer an administration based solution (we provide the details, etc.) rather than a student based one (i.e. test or evaluation). I'll let you know if anything comes up before I'm back, but it seems that Perry wants to wait and discuss this with the registrar next week. How are things going there?

Okay. Huh. Now. Students are investigating multiple universities - Prague College and Anglo-American seem to be the choice for those who haven't applied here. UNYP is almost always refusing students because of the accreditation issue.

DHL called me on Monday and I met with them on Tuesday. Petra is unhappy that she wasn't notified in advanced and had to hear about the situation from her employees. She's calm for the moment but will probably revisit the issue again once she's talked with her management.

And many of the MBA students want to accelerate their students and bring everything into Fall 2009 so that they are eligible for the dual diploma. Thoughts?

Very, very badly. I am the scapegoat (and the new queen bitch :-)) and you are his new found best friend, colleague, buddy, pal - old faithful - together for 10 years, etc, etc.

It is extremely unpleasant at the moment. Not sure if I'll be here at the end of the day, let alone the end of the week.

Tamara and Jitka have resigned. They are getting alot of pressure from both of them.

Hi Again!

I just sent this message off to Mitchell in an attempt to calm him a little. I will wait until my return to Prague before I speak with him, but I wished to lift some of the burden from your shoulders.

I haven't gone into much detail as you can see.

Hi Mitchell,

UNVA00012

I know what has happened back there, but I've no idea how it will play out. I have been trying to sort out MSN messenger from Internet cafes but its pretty useless. I am staying with my brother, but I leave the island tomorrow to return to Prague. Due to bank security he doesn't have a landline (even my folks had to contact him at his office).

I know things are moving fast, Jon Holmes has given me full heads-up on an alternate plan. Seems that there is little confidence back there in Prague.

The students had their boatparty and we ALL came out of it looking bad. There was a lot of trouble and some 'truths' were uttered by our students as the alcohol was flowing. A lot of punches were thrown too!

I HAD THE CHANCE TO SPEAK WITH DON FOR THE FIRST TIME.....and he said that he is moving ahead with a September start, using the existing company, and that things haven't flowed the way he expected.

Given that I have resigned and working my notice, I made sure that he understood that I'd like to have a job with his entity. I know that you will understand that I have to protect my family's future and make sure that I have an income from somewhere. I think the same is true for Michelle, she needs to secure a job too. This whole sorry mess was launched with the email from Tiffin which named you as the Prague contact. If that email had never been sent then there would probably not be any alternate plan floating around. Your friend Vaclav seems to have mentioned too much to other students. I was confronted late last week by a number of female students who seemed to know more than I ever have. I also had a confrontation with one of our receptionists who was shooting his mouth off. I informed him that, as far as I knew, your intention was to steady the ship and that you had not signed any contract with any other entity. He was mouthing off that I was lying to him, and rather loudly. At the very end of last week matters became nasty. However, anytime that I heard Michelle speak to students on the matter she was quite calm and always covered your back.

I am also aware that at the end of last week Jitka and Tamara resigned. I think they have both had enough. They were never party to any future plans and seem disappointed with us all.

Late tomorrow I'll be back in France and I hope to be able to connect via T-Mobile. I may be driving and unable to speak as my intention is to return as quick as I can given the way things are moving.

Martin

I guess he will change his opinion of me now that he knows I am actively intending to side with the alternate plan. Truth is he left me no choice..... It is a simple case of family needs first!

Keep your head high!

Martin

Mitchell did not take the news of a second bid well. I apologize if you or Laura were on the receiving end of anything unpleasant.

I have been let go of my remaining contract time effective today. As of tomorrow, I will be free to work on Tiffin full time.

And to top it all off, I dropped my external storage drive and lost all of my files. Thankfully, gmail retains copies so I at least have everything that I've sent out.

Laura and I have both received phone calls from Mitchell. As you imagine he is upset. Obviously Laura and I do not know all the details but hope this all works out.

I was thinking about a trip to Prague (from Bucharest) July 20-22 to possibly meet with the new president, you and whoever else might be involved in all of this. Does that make sense?

I will need to confirm with you later this week regarding your visit to Prague. I do think that it would be highly beneficial to us but I am not sure what my obligations to UNVA entail. I will get back to you later.

Dear Michelle: I am sorry I was not able to participate in your phone call with Perry. (I was watching the Cleveland Indians lose to the Chicago Cubs, so in retrospect...) As you know, Mitchell has spoken with both Perry and me about his situation. He has not been unpleasant, but he has been very vocal about his sense of betrayal. I suppose this is a natural reaction.

I do have some questions. Since Mitchell was our primary contact person, you and I have not discussed some issues that will become important in a few months and others that are important to discuss now. For example, we do not know much about the investors in this project besides you. Do you have some information like bios or resumes to send us so we have sense of the people we are dealing with and can answer questions posed to us here?

Mitchell has mentioned that many of the students were concerned because in the early days of our unofficial recruiting last month, they were told he would not be involved. This is when Mitchell was still a part of UNV and had not handed in his resignation. I know you told Perry you had approximately 100 students signed up for Tiffin, but do you think the fact Mitchell is not involved will have an impact on these numbers? I realize this may be a rather odd question to ask you, after all I suppose you would still be dealing with him if you believed this to be true. Nevertheless, do you have sense of how they are reacting? Also, I wasn't sure if the 100 students was a combination of BBA and MBA?

If you think it is important for me to join Perry in July, I am happy to do so - but you may not think the monetary outlay would be cost-effective, which is fine. I only let you know that it will be of use to you and the others I am willing to come.

I think you are aware of the fact that we had spoken to Mitchell about having Tiffin professors - including Perry and me - who will be teaching in Romania in October to come to Prague for a type of "kick-off" ceremony. The dates are October 26-28 for recruitment-based activities. In our talks with Mitchell, he had agreed to pay for four rooms for three nights and we would pick up our air travel costs. I bring this up not because it is a burning issue at the moment, but because I want us to be on the same page from the beginning.

Thanks for your cooperation and attention to these details.

Dear Michelle:

I have one more question for you - one I also intend to put to Mitchell, so do not think I am doing an end run around him. Has Mitchell resigned from UNVA? I know he said he had planned to do so on Monday when he returned to Prague, but I am not sure what his status is now. You may not know either, but I am curious.

Hi Michelle,

These contacts you have now (including Laura Mays and mine) will probably work for now. The students' access to Ohio Link will come as a password that is on the ID card they will receive when formally accepted into the program.

Perry,

Could you add a short description of each position so that we know who we should go to under what circumstances? I know that over time this will work itself out but it might help early on to know who's who so that we don't cross boundaries.

Thanks so much

Hi Michelle,

Good talking to you today. Good luck in making those difficult decisions about how you want to go forward. Here is some more info on those contacts:

Alice Nichols (ANichols@tiffin.edu), Registrar--In most cases I would suggest contacting Laura or me first. Once in a while you may want to contact Alice directly but she is relying on Laura and me to help her with information dealing with our European partners. She does have the final decision authority regarding transfer issues.

Scott Saracusa (SaracusaSW@tiffin.edu), Admissions, Foreign Programs--Scott is the person to whom applications (both MBA and BBA) will go initially. If he has questions he may contact you or is more likely to contact me. We are working on a system where students will be able to apply online. That application would go both to you and us. This hopefully will streamline that process.

Kristi Krintzline (KrintzlineKA@liffin.edu), Graduate Admissions Director—Kristi is Scott's boss. She may occasionally get involved in an admissions decision. Feel free to contact her for ideas about recruiting students into the MBA program. She is more than willing to help if she can.

All of these people are helpful and easy to get along with. All of them have a somewhat limited knowledge about what we are doing outside the US which is why I suggested most of the time you will probably want to contact Laura or me first. Hope this helps.

Laura,

I have a student who is interested in applying for Tiffin's MBA program here. He is eligible for full disability from the State of California which through the Department of Rehabilitation would pay his tuition. Is it possible to arrange this through the main campus? If so, is there a contact that you can give me.

Hi Helena,
I received the email below from Perry at Tiffin. He seems confident that they will be able to accept the past year's credits, but needs to speak with the registrar there next week about exactly how that will be done. I've written him with some further suggestions, and will keep you informed of our conversations. I think we'll find a solution that everyone is happy with. If you'd like to talk more about anything, let me know. Otherwise, I'll call you on Sunday.

Hi Mitchell,

I didn't mean to give Michelle a heart attack. It appears there will be a way to accept those credits. The question is how we are going to do to keep the accreditation groups here away. Michelle proposed some sort of description written by the faculty member for each of the courses affirming that each student in each class who passed has learned what they were supposed to etc. Our registrar is on vacation this week so I will need to wait until next week to check with her on this.

We originally proposed some sort of test for each of the students for each class but Michelle suggested the logistics of that did not seem very practical.

Another option might be to have each student write one Credit for Prior Learning Portfolio that would discuss all the things the student learned in each of the classes completed.

I'll let you know when I discuss early next week with the registrar. Enjoy the rest of your trip.

Dear Laura and Perry,

I just wanted to check in quickly to see if you have any update on things from your end. I also wanted to send you our ideas on a transfer plan for the MBA.

If I understand correctly, transfer credits for the MBA are limited to one-third of the program (12 credits). I've used that as our basic assumption for this outline; however, if it were possible to increase that number, there would be more students interested in transferring. With the one-third limitation, it will likely only be those students in the cohorts that started in January or April. If a student could transfer a few more credits, we might get the October cohort to transfer as well.

One slightly tricky issue is that the students would be transferring 3 credit courses into a 2 credit system. What we would propose is to bundle together 2 UNVA courses (6 credits) with 3 Tiffin courses (6 credits). In consultation with Martin and Michelle, we have found 2 such bundles, which would cover the 12 transfer credits. These are as follows:

Finance/Accounting bundle:

UNVA: 1) ACTG500 Financial Accounting Analysis + 2) FINA500 Money, Banking and Financial Markets Tiffin: 1) ACC510 Financial Accounting + 2) ACC512 Managerial Accounting + 3) FIN612 Managerial Finance

Management bundle:

UNVA: 1) BMGT500 Principles of Management + 2) COMM500 Management Communication Tiffin: 1) MGT511 Individual (Leadership?) and Teamwork + 2) MGT531 Leadership & Influence + 3) MGT621 Organizational Analysis & Design

If a student could transfer those two bundles, that would be ideal for most of them. There are other courses which match up nicely, but don't seem to bundle together. In case a student wanted to transfer these other courses I guess it would need to be on a 3-credits for 2-credits model. Here's how they match up:

Tiffin Course = UNVA course

FIN612 Managerial Economics = ECON510 Managerial Economics
CIT514 Information and Decision Support = IMSC500 Information Systems Technology
MAT513 Statistical Methods for Managers = STAT500 Statistics for Managers
MGT623 Legal and Ethical Issues in Management = BMGT Legal Environment for Business

Beyond that there are further courses in our specializations that match up, but those would be taken later in the program by which point it would probably be too late for a student to transfer.

Please let me know if you have any questions, or need syllabi for the courses, etc. Looking forward to hearing from you.

Best wishes,
Mitchell

We have some students paying for ten courses in advance so that they get the 2% discount. Contracts state that tuition paid in advance is non-refundable if a student withdraws from the program.

What would you like to do about this?

Perry,

I've attached Revision B of the original course by course equivalence table Mitchell provided to you. It has been updated to reflect the variety of electives courses UNVA students were able to take during their studies. I've attempted to match them based on Tiffin's catalog course descriptions.

I also restructured it slightly to conform to the general BBA management/international business credit requirements (i.e. 8 electives) that I assume can be taken from within any subject area of study.

I've also attached UNVA's course descriptions. I believe that Mitchell has already indicated that there may be a stretch in the liberal arts area, however, we wanted to ensure that UNVA students were able to transfer liberal art courses across.

Please let me know if I can provide you with any additional information.

Regards,

Michelle

Mitchell,

I attempted on two separate occasions to notify you yesterday, Wednesday, June 24th, that I was ill. While you were in the office, you were not available.

As has been standard practice at the university during my two years of employment, I notified a colleague, in this case, Jitka Ticha, that I was going home ill. I left the university at approximately 2:00 p.m.

Today, I continue to feel unwell. I have an appointment later today to see my doctor. I will, of course, inform you of the results of my visit.

Given the personal situation between you and I, on the advice of my lawyer, I have copied him on this email.

UNVA EXPLAINING SESSION

Because there was enough of rumors...

Host: UNVA PRAGUE

Type: Causes + Rally

Network: Global

Date: Thursday, June 25, 2009

Time: 1:00pm - 2:00pm

Location: UNVA PRAGUE CAMPUS

Description

Guys, all of you could noticed that current situation at UNVA is not sustainable and doesn't allow us to sleep well. That's is why I made decision a based of Norman's email I called him to find out more about Tim and UNVA. Based on this I had a 7 hour lasting meeting with Mitchell where we concluded there is necessary to talk to US students in order to understand what happened and what are recommended steps. Please all UNVA students COME TO THIS SESSION. THIS SESSION WAS PROVOKED BY ME IN ORDER TO GLUE BACK UNVA FAMILY. THANK YOU AND SEE YOU THERE! Kind regards,
Radek

One thing Radek forgot to mention is that he spent 7 hours with Mitchell and Katerina by calling his lawyer and talking to their lawyer and making plans how to destroy people's lives and careers. Pathetic little bastard.

I must apologize to you all. I gave you bad information concerning the new university. I got bad information from people I believed I could trust. Michelle and Gordon started signing up students while Mitchel was out of town. They did this illegally and without authority. The new university will not legally exist in the Czech Republic until the middle of August.

Right now the future of the new university is in question. We do not know if it will exist, who will be managing it and under what conditions it will operate. I certainly will not be working there. I will never again be associated with either Michele or Gordon. UNDER NO CONDITIONS PAY ANY MONEY, FEES OR TUITION until the situation is clear.

I am sorry. Norman return after June 29. Thanks for providing the thumbnail sketch of the investors.

Your plan to visit us in Tiffin is good news, and I am sure we can easily plan for this event.

Please know that Perry will be traveling to Prague on "our dime," so to speak. The reason I mentioned evaluating the cost-effectiveness of my potential visit is that it is not in our budget. I really think that my visit is not necessary especially if your team is planning a visit to us in the near future. I just wanted to be sure you knew that I was willing to come, and still am if it is of any value added benefit to you. Is the new president one of the investors, Don McNeil? I think his is the name Perry gave me - Mitchell gave me a different name. Please let me know if I can clarify any other issues for you.

Thank you for your email. Let's touch based again next week and see if a skype call would be needed.

Don MacNeil will not be the president. Since Don and Helena, as primary investors (I'm just a "little" one), have not yet made a final decision, it would be premature at this stage to discuss who the individual might be.

I understand the operational budget issue as we also did not anticipate the need for an additional visit to Prague, however, the visit to Tiffin is included in the plan. And is looked forward to with great pleasure.

Things are still in quite a turmoil here. The vocalness of Mitchell and his wife continue to escalate making things very unpleasant. As I am not sure to the degree that this vocalness might take, please don't hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance or clarify any additional concerns.

May I give your Skype details to Helena and Don? They wish to establish communication with you and to reassure you of their commitment to this undertaking.

With sincerest regards,

Michelle

Good morning Michelle,

I told to Katerina so I know, the situation with Tiffin project is slightly different, as you presented to me last week.

From that reason, as author of the website, letterhead and business card design proposals, I don't allow you to use it, or publish anyhow. I believe you respect copyright act. Please, put it into trash.

I would be thankful for ANY feedback

Perry,

Wanted to thank you for the names. Just to be sure I contact the right person for the right reason, can you give me an idea of what areas each of them is responsible for and under what circumstances/conditions I or other TU-Prague staff should contact them. Could you also include yourself and Laura in this list?

Alice Nichols (ANichols@tiffin.edu), Registrar
Kristi Krintzline (KrintzlineKA@tiffin.edu), Graduate Admissions Director
Scott Saracusa (SaracusaSW@tiffin.edu), Admissions, Foreign Programs

Also, can I get a contact for your librarian? Mitchell had said that our students would be able to access TU's online libraries and research databases. Would like to get our librarian in touch with yours to start a dialogue.

And another person if you can - who is responsible for ordering textbooks for TU? Is it possible to piggyback onto TU's contract with textbook publishers? Does TU purchase hard copies or is TU moving toward electronic textbooks? I'd really like to move toward an online library rather than incurring the cost of a paper-based library (though I realize a degree of paper will be required).

Thanks so much. I am really excited about our joint venture. So are our students. Hoping that our "issue" gets resolved in a way suitable for us both.

Regards,

Michelle

Hi Michelle,

I am not on campus today but will put that list together tomorrow. I will check to see who the contact person is for library access. I am not sure if it is our librarian or somebody in ITS.

Well, had my first shock of the day in reading your email - particularly the item regarding the inability to transfer of credits from UNVA after it lost its accreditation. If you don't mind, I'll give you a call today to review the content of your email.

I appreciate your response and look forward to meeting and working with Tiffin's staff as our mutual students come on board.

Mitchell,

Please read Perry's email below. Needless to say, I am absolutely shocked that at this stage of the transition this news is coming to light. It was my understanding (as well as Martin's and Gordon's) from you that Tiffin had agreed to accept for transfer UNVA credits acquired during the 18 months after the loss of UNVA's accreditation (i.e. through Fall 2009). And in addition, that they had approved the course by course transition plan we laid out for the MBA and BBA programs. I'm sure you realize that without this ability, that our project

Hi Michelle,

You can breath again. :-)

The registrar agreed to allow the students who have taken classes since UNVA lost its accreditation to take TU created proficiency tests for those classes. We will need a list of the courses for which we will need to create tests.

Actually I don't know if this would work but I am going to be in Poland and Romania in July. Maybe I could make a trip to Prague to oversee the administration of the test to keep our accrediting types happy. I don't know if students are available to take the tests then (I'm guessing not?).

I can Skype anytime if it is easier than exchanging mails.

Perry,

Am breathing in shallow gasps still. Appreciate your help.

Logistics complications:

There would be 110 classes with an average of 18 students per class or 1,980 tests to be administered and marked.

How do you envision proceeding? The time to prepare the initial material for your registrar, schedule and administer the exams, mark them and document everything will be an enormously time consuming endeavor. Not to mention the cost associated with this undertaking as we would have to bear the total unplanned cost out of an operational start-up budget.

The testing would have to be done during the school term as the majority of our potential students will go home for the summer.

UNVA00049

I'll give you a call about 9:00 your time to further talk about proceeding. While I understand the concern of your registrar and the need to ensure compliance with the accrediting agency, I'd like to continue to discuss options or revised options.

Regards,

Michelle

Hi Perry, just back from my reunion, and here in Wilmington with access to email again. Michelle sent me an email with some concerns about transfer credits. I think she may have already spoken to you again about that, so maybe by now all is solved. There is only one very serious problem, which is that of transferring credits earned after UNVA lost accreditation. We spoke about this in Bucharest, and you'd told me that it shouldn't be a problem to make an exception for that. If Tiffin can't accept those credits, our whole business plan will not work. Maybe we can speak by phone today. I'll be in and out. My number here is 302-652-5231 or I can try you. Let me know what's best.

Hi Michelle,

I exchanged a few emails with Perry, and he seems confident that there will be a way to transfer the credits from this year. He needs to discuss that with the registrar who is on holiday until next week. I've told him that we would prefer an administration based solution (we provide the details, etc.) rather than a student based one (i.e. test or evaluation). I'll let you know if anything comes up before I'm back, but it seems that Perry wants to wait and discuss this with the registrar next week. How are things going there?

Okay - quiet now. Students are investigating multiple universities - Prague College and Anglo-American seem to be the choice for those who haven't applied here. UNYP is almost always refusing students because of the accreditation issue.

DHL called me on Monday and I meet with them on Tuesday. Petra is unhappy that she wasn't notified in advanced and had to hear about the situation from her employees. She's calm for the moment but will probably revisit the issue again once she's talked with her management.

And many of the MBA students want to accelerate their students and bring everything into Fall 2009 so that they are eligible for the dual diploma. Thoughts?

Very, very badly. I am the scapegoat (and the new queen bitch :-)) and you are his new found best friend, colleague, buddy, pal - old faithful - together for 10 years, etc. etc.

It is extremely unpleasant at the moment. Not sure if I'll be here at the end of the day, let alone the end of the week.

Tamara and Jitka have resigned. They are getting alot of pressure from both of them.

Hi Again!

I just sent this message off to Mitchell in an attempt to calm him a little. I will wait until my return to Prague before I speak with him, but I wished to lift some of the burden from your shoulders.

I haven't gone into much detail as you can see.....

Hi Mitchell,

I know what has happened back there, but I've no idea how it will play out. I have been trying to sort out MSN messenger from internet cafes but its pretty useless. I am staying with my brother, but I leave the island tomorrow to return to Prague. Due to bank security he doesn't have a landline (even my folks had to contact him at his office).

I know things are moving fast, Jon Holmes has given me full heads-up on an alternate plan. Seems that there is little confidence back there in Prague.

The students had their boatparty and we ALL came out of it looking bad. There was a lot of trouble and some 'truths' were uttered by our students as the alcohol was flowing. A lot of punches were thrown too!

I HAD THE CHANCE TO SPEAK WITH DON FOR THE FIRST TIME.....and he said that he is moving ahead with a September start, using the existing company, and that things haven't flowed the way he expected.

Given that I have resigned and working my notice, I made sure that he understood that I'd like to have a job with his entity. I know that you will understand that I have to protect my family's future and make sure that I have an income from somewhere. I think the same is true for Michelle, she needs to secure a job too. This whole sorry mess was launched with the email from Tiffin which named you as the Prague contact. If that email had never been sent then there would probably not be any alternate plan floating around. Your 'friend' Vaclav seems to have mentioned too much to other students. I was confronted late last week by a number of female students who seemed to know more than I ever have. I also had a confrontation with one of our receptionists who was shooting his mouth off. I informed him that, as far as I knew, your intention was to steady the ship and that you had not signed any contract with any other entity. He was mouthing off that I was lying to him...and rather loudly. At the very end of last week matters became nasty. However, anytime that I heard Michelle speak to students on the matter she was quite calm and always covered your back.

I am also aware that at the end of last week Jitka and Tamara resigned, I think they have both had enough. They were never party to any future plans and seem disappointed with us all.

Late tomorrow I'll be back in France and I hope to be able to connect via T-Mobile. I may be driving and unable to speak as my intention is to return as quick as I can given the way things are moving.

Martin

I guess he will change his opinion of me now that he knows I am actively intending to side with the alternate plan. Truth is he left me no choice.....It is a simple case of family needs first!

Keep your head high!
Martin

Mitchell did not take the news of a second bid well. I apologize if you or Laura were on the receiving end of anything unpleasant.

I have been let go of my remaining contract time effective today. As of tomorrow, I will be free to work on Tiffin full time.

And to top it all off, I dropped my external storage drive and lost all of my files. Thankfully, gmail retains copies so I at least have everything that I've sent out.

I will need to confirm with you later this week regarding your visit to Prague. I do think that it would be

Dear Michelle: I am sorry I was not able to participate in your phone call with Perry. (I was watching the Cleveland Indians lose to the Chicago Cubs, so in retrospect . . .) As you know, Mitchell has spoken with both Perry and me about his situation. He has not been unpleasant, but he has been very vocal about his sense of betrayal. I suppose this is a natural reaction.

I do have some questions. Since Mitchell was our primary contact person, you and I have not discussed some issues that will become important in a few months and others that are important to discuss now. For example, we do not know much about the investors in this project besides you. Do you have some information like bios or resumes to send us so we have sense of the people we are dealing with and can answer questions posed to us here?

Mitchell has mentioned that many of the students were concerned because in the early days of our unofficial recruiting last month, they were told he would not be involved. This is when Mitchell was still a part of UNV and had not handed in his resignation. I know you told Perry you had approximately 100 students signed up for Tiffin, but do you think the fact Mitchell is not involved will have an impact on these numbers? I realize this may be a rather odd question to ask you; after all I suppose you would still be dealing with him if you believed this to be true. Nevertheless, do you have sense of how they are reacting? Also, I wasn't sure if the 100 students was a combination of BBA and MBA?

If you think it is important for me to join Perry in July, I am happy to do so — but you may not think the monetary outlay would be cost-effective, which is fine. I only let you know that if it will of use to you and the others, I am willing to come.

I think you are aware of the fact that we had spoken to Mitchell about having TU professors — including Perry and me — who will be teaching in Romania in October to come to Prague for a type of "kick-off" ceremony. The dates are October 26-28 for recruitment-based activities. In our talks with Mitchell he had agreed to pay for four rooms for three nights and we would pick up our air travel costs. I bring this up not because it is a burning issue at the moment, but because I want us to be on the same page from the beginning.

Thanks for your cooperation and attention to these details
Laura

Laura,

Thank you for your email. And for the clarity of your concerns.

I understand that Mitchell has been quite vocal. Believe me, I know, as I have been on the receiving end

Dear Michelle:

I have one more question for you - one I also intend to put to Mitchell, so do not think I am doing an end run around him. Has Mitchell resigned from UNVA? I know he said he had planned to do so on Monday when he returned to Prague, but I am not sure what his status is now. You may not know either, but I am curious.

To my knowledge he has not. From all indications he is continuing to function as UNVA's president and managing director. Michelle

Because there was enough of rumors...

Host: UNVA PRAGUE

Type: Causes - Rally

Network: Global

Date: Thursday, June 25, 2009

Time: 1:00pm - 2:00pm

Location: UNVA PRAGUE CAMPUS

Description

Guys, all of you could noticed that current situation at UNVA is not sustainable and doesn't allow us to sleep well. That's is why I made decision a based of Norman's email I called him to find out more about Tiffin and UNVA. Based on this I had a 7 hour lasting meeting with Mitchell where we concluded there is necessary to talk to US students in order to understand what happened and what are recommended steps. Please, all UNVA students, COME TO THIS SESSION. THIS SESSION WAS PROVOKED BY ME IN ORDER TO GLUE BACK "UNVA FAMILY". THANK YOU AND SEE YOU THERE! Kind regards, Radek.

One thing Radek forgot to mention is that he spent 7 hours with Mitchell and Katerina by calling his lawyer and talking to their lawyer and making plans how to destroy people's lives and careers. Pathetic little bastard.

I must apologize to you all. I gave you bad information concerning the new university. I got bad information from people I believed I could trust Michelle and Gordon started signing up students while Mitchel was out of town. They did this illegally and without authority. The new university will not legally exist in the Czech Republic until the middle of August.

Right now the future of the new university is in question. We do not know if it will exist, who will be managing it and under what conditions it will operate. I certainly will not be working there. I will never again be associated with either Michèle or Gordon. UNDER NO CONDITIONS PAY ANY MONEY, FEES OR TUITION until the situation is clear.

I am sorry. Norman

Thank you. Yes, I know about the email. Norman was used to do someone else's business, Sad really. Things continue to disintegrate. I have been publicly harassed, threaten and humiliated. Called horrible names and insulted. Not a pleasant time. I am sure it is all on facebook. Keep your head low.

Dear Michelle,

don't have Facebook, but hey, I have no desire to keep my head lower than normal... besides, I need some information from you. I have spoken to FFUK about going part-time. They have agreed to allow me, but I need to know obviously when I should arrange this from and whether I should do so? I wouldn't worry about the voices calling you names.... these never quieten... but then again, they never say anything new either :)

return after June 29. Thanks for providing the thumbnail sketch of the investors.

Your plan to visit us in Tiffin is good news, and I am sure we can easily plan for this event.

Please know that Perry will be traveling to Prague on "our dime," so to speak. The reason I mentioned evaluating the cost-effectiveness of my potential visit is that it is not in our budget. I really think that my visit is not necessary especially if your team is planning a visit to us in the near future. I just wanted to be sure you knew that I was willing to come, and still am if it is of any value added benefit to you. Is the new president one of the investors, Don McNeil? I think his is the name Perry gave me - Mitchell gave me a different name. Please let me know if I can clarify any other issues for you.

Laura,

Thank you for your email. Let's touch base again next week and see if a skype call would be needed.

Don MacNeil will not be the president. Since Don and Helena, as primary investors (I'm just a "little" one), have not yet made a final decision, it would be premature at this stage to discuss who the individual might be.

I understand the operational budget issue as we also did not anticipate the need for an additional visit to Prague, however, the visit to Tiffin is included in the plan. And is looked forward to with great pleasure.

Things are still in quite a turmoil here. The vocalness of Mitchell and his wife continue to escalate making things very unpleasant. As I am not sure to the degree that this vocalness might take, please don't hesitate to contact me if I can be of any assistance or clarify any additional concerns.

May I give your Skype details to Helena and Don? They wish to establish communication with you and to reassure you of their commitment to this undertaking.

With sincerest regards,

Michelle

Of course, Michelle. For Skype it is: Dr. Laura Mays. I'll look forward to being in touch again next week. But please do not hesitate to email me if you have any questions or concerns or information! I think I told you that Perry and I will be in San Antonio tomorrow through Monday at a conference of our accrediting agency. Representatives from the European Council of Business Education will also be attending - I think you know that this is the European accrediting agency that put us in touch with all of you in the first place.

It is extremely unpleasant at the moment. Not sure if I'll be here at the end of the day, let alone the end of the week.

Good morning Michelle,

I told to Katerina so I know, the situation with Tiffin project is slightly different, as you presented to me last week.

From that reason, as author of the website, letterhead and business card design proposals, I don't allow you to use it, or publish anyhow. I believe you respect copyright act. Please, put it into trash,

I would be thankful for ANY feedback

Perry,

Wanted to thank you for the names. Just to be sure I contact the right person for the right reason, can you give me an idea of what areas each of them is responsible for and under what circumstances/conditions I or other TU-Prague staff should contact them. Could you also include yourself and Laura in this list?

Alice Nichols (ANichols@tiffin.edu), Registrar
Kristi Krintzline (KrintzlineKA@tiffin.edu), Graduate Admissions Director
Scott Saracusa (SaracusaSW@tiffin.edu), Admissions, Foreign Programs

Also, can I get a contact for your librarian? Mitchell had said that our students would be able to access TU's online libraries and research databases. Would like to get our librarian in touch with yours to start a dialogue.

And another person if you can - who is responsible for ordering textbooks for TU? Is it possible to piggyback onto TU's contract with textbook publishers? Does TU purchase hard copies or is TU moving toward electronic textbooks? I'd really like to move toward an online library rather than incurring the cost of a paper-based library (though I realize a degree of paper will be required).

Thanks so much. I am really excited about our joint venture. So are our students. Hoping that our "issue" gets resolved in a way suitable for us both.

Regards,

Michelle

These contacts you have now (including Laura Mays and mine) will probably work for now. The students' access to Ohio Link will come as a password that is on the ID card they will receive when formally accepted into the program.

Perry,

Could you add a short description of each position so that we know who we should go to under what circumstances? I know that over time this will work itself out but it might help early on to know who's who so that we don't cross boundaries.

Thanks so much.

Hi Michelle,

Good talking to you today. Good luck in making those difficult decisions about how you want to go forward. Here is some more info on those contacts:

Alice Nichols (ANichols@tiffin.edu), Registrar--In most cases I would suggest contacting Laura or me first. Once in a while you may want to contact Alice directly but she is relying on Laura and me to help her with information dealing with our European partners. She does have the final decision authority regarding transfer issues.

Scott Saracusa (SaracusaSW@tiffin.edu), Admissions, Foreign Programs--Scott is the person to whom applications (both MBA and BBA) will go initially. If he has questions he may contact you or is more likely to contact me. We are working on a system where students will be able to apply online. That application would go both to you and us. This hopefully will streamline that process.

Kristi Krintzline (KrintzlineKA@tiffin.edu), Graduate Admissions Director--Kristi is Scott's boss. She may occasionally get involved in an admissions decision. Feel free to contact her for ideas about recruiting students into the MBA program. She is more than willing to help if she can.

All of these people are helpful and easy to get along with. All of them have a somewhat limited knowledge about what we are doing outside the US which is why I suggested most of the time you will probably want to contact Laura or me first. Hope this helps.

Laura,

I have a student who is interested in applying for Tiffin's MBA program here. He is eligible for full disability from the State of California which through the Department of Rehabilitation would pay his tuition. Is it possible to arrange this through the main campus? If so, is there a contact that you can give me.
